

FINCA LA INDIANA

Type of wine: Aged red wine

Designation of origin: Sierras de Malaga

Grape varieties used: Petit Verdot

Presentation: 0.75 l

Elaboration: Wine made of Petit Verdot, grape that was grown on the farm "LA INDIANA" (Ronda). These vineyards are located more than 700 meters, where the difference temperature between night and day allows perfect grape ripening. Hand-made harvesting, transporting the grapes to the winery in Moclinejo (Axarquia region) in boxes of 15 kg. The grapes are destalked and immediately proceed to fermentation in stainless steel tanks with controlled temperature.

Ageing: 12 Months in French oak barrels 80% and American oak barrels 20%.

Total alcoholic acquired: 14% vol.

How to serve: Serve at a temperature of 16 ° C.

Characteristics: Cherry color with violet, clean and brilliant. Nose is immensely floral (irises and violets), aromas of red and black fruits such as currants, raspberry and blueberry jam, and graphite mineral. Spicy and black licorice flavors. The palate entry is intense and wide sensation. Great acidity balanced whole.
